

Conference Director: Roger Cole

Keynote Speakers:

Professor Robin Alexander, University of Cambridge:
Director of the Cambridge Primary Review

Dr Catherine Burke, University of Cambridge
Senior Lecturer in Education, Faculty of Education

Jan Dubiel QCA

Dr Steve Edgley, University of Cambridge
Reader in Neuroscience: Department of Physiology, Development and Neuroscience
Director of Studies for Preclinical Medicine, St John's College

Deana Holdaway HMI
Assistant Divisional Manager, Midlands Education and Learning Skills, Curriculum and Dissemination

Clive Wilkinson DCSF

Dr Dominic Wyse, University of Cambridge
Senior Lecturer in Early Years and Primary Education, Faculty of Education
Fellow of Churchill College

NAPE's inaugural Education Conference takes place in the beautiful setting of Madingley Hall near Cambridge. The conference logo, the Tudor Rose, represents both the setting and the focus of Primary Education, the Rose Report. The conference is being directed by Roger Cole, one of our leading Educational Consultants, whose work is internationally renowned. He is a writer, lecturer, teacher and commentator and his work inspires teachers to seek the best ways to achieve the highest standards of education for every child.

Delegate rates

Residential	£350
Non residential	£175

Send attached application form to:

NAPE:
155, High Street, Chalgrove,
Oxon OX44 7ST
Telephone/FAX 01865 890281

Great Expectations: The Future of Primary Education

Keynote Speakers:

Professor Robin Alexander
Dr Catherine Burke
Jan Dubiel QCA
Dr Steve Edgley
Deana Holdaway HMI
Clive Wilkinson DCSF
Dr Dominic Wyse

11am Monday 6th April to
2pm Wednesday 8th April 2009
Madingley Hall, Cambridge

Monday:

11am – 12 noon Registration and Welcome

12.15pm Roger Cole
The Opening of the 2009 Madingley Conference

1pm - 2pm Drinks & Lunch

2.15pm Clive Wilkinson
Great Expectations:
▪ The Past and Present Informing the Future

3.15pm Afternoon Tea

4.00pm Dr Cathy Burke
Taking children seriously in designing educational environments for 21st century
▪ History of school design
▪ Educational principles and the design process
▪ The view of the child

5.00pm Exploring Madingley Hall and its Grounds

6.30pm Pre-dinner drinks and the music of Dante Ferrara - Elizabethan Minstrel

7.30pm Dinner

Tuesday:

7.30am - 8.45am Breakfast

9.00am Roger Cole
“There is a tide in the affairs of men”

9.15am Dr Steve Edgley
The Body and the Brain
▪ Are there lessons for higher education from primary education, and vice versa?
▪ New ideas on how the brain processes information and makes decisions
▪ The brain as a “mirror”

10.30am Morning Coffee

11.30am Jan Dubiel QCA
The Future starts here
▪ The importance of EYs and its long term impact
▪ Effective and appropriate pedagogy and assessment
▪ Key issues and obstacles

1.00pm Lunch

2.00-4.00pm
Professor Robin Alexander, University of Cambridge:
Director of the Cambridge Primary Review

4.00pm Afternoon Tea

4.30pm – 6.00pm Dr Dominic Wyse
Quarts, Pint-Pots & Empty Vessels
▪ The importance of 2009 for the primary curriculum
▪ Government control of the curriculum
▪ An outstanding curriculum for our children

7.15pm Dinner

8.15 Question Time: Chaired discussion

Wednesday:

7.30 - 8.45am Breakfast

9.15 – 10.15am Workshops

(all delegates will attend each workshop)

Duncan Bathgate
Believe in the Child: Realistic Experiences for Learning

Susan Humphries and Susan Rowe
Where Heads Dare

10.45am Morning Coffee

11.00am Deana Holdaway HMI
Is It a Risk Too Far?
▪ What Ofsted actually says about the curriculum

12.30pm Roger Cole
“Fare Forward Voyagers”

12.45pm John Coe
The close of the conference

1.00pm Lunch

2.00pm Depart

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Institute of Continuing Education